

RI Class Conflict Form

In the event a student has a conflict between two courses, students are required to fill out this form and provide information in all areas noted below. Please note that RI is mandatory and in many courses your participation is required in order to pass the course. See your course instructors for specific requirements in the event you missed a class session in order to attend another course that was scheduled at the same time.

Instructions: You are required to get the signature of your instructor and fill out a separate form for each class missed. If a form is not completed fully, an unexcused absence will result. Please return the completed form to the instructor from the course you missed.
